Community Investment Strategy

What is the Strategy?

1. Focus more clearly on priority results
2. Build the evidence base
3. Improve the quality of data collection
4. Set a clear direction for future funding
5. Further simplify compliance requirements
6. Continue to build provider capability.

The Social Investment Approach

‘A more rigorous and evidence based feedback loop linking service delivery to a better understanding of people’s needs and indicators of the effectiveness of social services’.

- Minister English

‘Regionally driven and nationally supported’

- Minister Tolley

MYD – Purpose and Priorities

“My vision is that all young New Zealanders, in addition to their academic achievements, also have access to youth development opportunities, whether that be leadership, mentoring, volunteering or sport and cultural opportunities”

Hon. Nikki Kaye
