Building connections for youth mentoring in Aotearoa New Zealand

10th -11th September 2013

Join with others from the sector to share resources, ideas and approaches at a programme level and connect policy/research to the 'real world' context.

CONFERENCE PURPOSE:

You will:

- Build connections with others in the sector to ensure we have the capacity to meet the needs of our young people
- Learn about Government's new initiative to promote youth mentoring, by encouraging adults to volunteer to mentor young people
- Listen to a range of case studies providing evidence of how youth mentoring programmes are meeting the needs of our young people and explore the longer term outcomes these programmes are achieving
- Explore 'best practice' in youth mentoring and identify areas where further support and assistance is required
- Receive an update on the latest research findings and cultural understanding relevant to youth mentoring
- Ask the 'experts' – the young people being mentored about their experiences
- Take away a range of new ideas to support you and your programme.

Who should attend?

Youth workers, educators, mentors, mentor programme providers, government agencies, and community workers who are working with young people. Foundations and corporates who are investing in youth development programmes may also benefit from attending this conference.
